

MEMO

TO: BC Hatching Egg Producers
FROM: Jim Collins
DATE: January 10, 2019
SUBJECT: Pricing

Good afternoon,

This is a quick follow up to my earlier correspondence on pricing and the Commission's approach.

The Commission remains focused on the larger picture and resolution(s) of the COP/Linkage review, the outcome of the live pricing appeal to BCFIRB and the Ontario COPF review. The Commission consulted with PPAC regarding Period A154 pricing and no exceptional circumstances for diverting from this approach were identified.

However, the Commission continues to examine potential pricing alternatives and options commencing in Period A155. Further consultation with the BC Chicken Marketing Board, PPAC and other stakeholders will occur as necessary and as appropriate depending on how things unfold.

Regards,
